

New Rules for Oil &/or Gas transactions as of August 1, 2019

Starting August 1, 2019 new rules will apply to anybody offering, or requesting an Oil &/or Gas product. In an attempt to avoid dealing with unqualified offers and/or requests, our management has changed the terms of our Code of Conduct with immediate effect.

If you wish to sell to, or through us and the Online Exchange

In order to comply with changed rules as spelled out in our COC, Code of Conduct, any party wishing to provide an offer involving Oil and/or Gas products will additionally have to qualify the offer provided in order for it to be considered, and/or to be listed on the Online Exchange. You can qualify ONLY by completing and submitting our form OIL & GAS - QUALIFY YOUR OFFER

Simple enquiries, or requests are no longer acceptable and being dealt with.

We will provide the best possible service!

Changes are made in an attempt to reduce enormous unnecessary workflow caused by mostly by unprofessional, unknowledgeable and/or unscrupulous participants in the Oil &/or Gas market. See this recently issued warning here [(C) BLCO WARNING Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC)]

<http://commoditytrading.international/wp-content/uploads/2019/08/C-BLCO-WARNING-Nigerian-National-Petroleum-Corporation-NNPC.pdf> and it will be obvious to you what we are talking about. With the implementation of these changes of our business policy, we will further protect our reputation and keep our transacting standards high – for you.

As from August 1, 2019 we will no longer process a flood of offers and requests, but we will be able to offer much more qualified transactions through our Online Exchange.

If you want to provide an offer, or request a quote, or if you have a transaction pending with us, provided an offer, or requested a quote prior August 1, 2019, then you should complete and submit the above mentioned relevant form. Only then, we will be able to further list your transaction on our online platform, provide you with an offer, or consider you offer, and we can further process what you have submitted prior August 1, 2019.

We trust that you will appreciate our efforts for higher standards and a better service for our market participants and look forward to your professional requests and offers and to work with you on this basis.
